

General Rules

1. The Greene County Fair begins on Labor Day and runs through the following Saturday.
2. The Fair Association is NOT Liable for the loss, damage, or injury to any exhibit or animal during the fair.
3. No roving vendors or solicitors, acting for either a profit or nonprofit organization or on his/her own behalf shall be permitted on the Greene County Fairgrounds for the purpose of vending food and soft drinks or selling anything for the benefit of patrons attending scheduled events therein. All solicitations for contributions must be made within the confines of the booth or display unless otherwise exempted by this regulation.
4. Prize money will be paid only on items listed in this catalog.
5. All checks may be picked up at the Fair Office Sunday afternoon from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Checks not called for are mailed the week following the fair.
6. Competition is only OPEN to bona fide residents of Greene County. Classes are divided into Junior and Senior/Open Divisions and no entry may be shown in two divisions. (No animal or entry can be shown in both Junior and Senior/Open Divisions.)With the exception of the Pen of Three Steer class.
7. PROTEST – All protests must be in writing. Such protest must state plainly the cause of the complaint and must be delivered to the Division Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent either prior to judging or within two hours after the conclusion of the divisional judging. Any protest as to the eligibility on account of age, breeding, or ownership of animals must be filed with the Division Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent prior to the day on which they are to be judged. Judging procedures will not be interrupted for protest investigations; and depending on the basis of the protest, a decision may be withheld until a thorough investigation is completed by the Greene County Fair Board whose decision shall be final. In addition on the right to protest herein granted to an exhibitor, the Greene County Fair Board reserves the right to take observance of fraud made or attempted in connection with any exhibit, and take such action as may be deemed just and proper, and as may be warranted in these circumstances. No protest based upon the statement that the judge or judges are incompetent will be considered. All questions in dispute or difference not covered by these rules will be referred to the Greene County Fair Board whose decision will be final. An exhibitor who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subjected to such penalty as the Fair Management may order.
8. There shall be absolutely no alcoholic beverages allowed to be sold, bartered, possessed or consumed on the Greene County Fairgrounds at any time during the fair activities. Anyone found to be in violation of this rule shall be removed from the fairgrounds and prohibited from returning to the fairgrounds during the remaining fair activities.
9. All materials deemed offensive or obscene will not be allowed.
10. No unauthorized animals allowed on the grounds.
